

So Much for World Peace

The Great God and Saviour the Lord Jesus Christ is the Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6). Do you know what he said to the people of his day that thought he was about to establish world peace? I'll tell you where you can find it. You can find it in a Holy Bible in the book of Luke 12:49-53.

"I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled? But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law."

- Luke 12:49-53

People think that Jesus Christ was coming to give peace on earth. What was the Lord's response? Nope, I have come to give division. Now how about that? Who believes in that Jesus anymore? You know what kind of Jesus most people believe in? Their Jesus is a man-made god that conforms to their preferences and beliefs and not what God's book says. You are making a god in your own image. That is why Jesus puts a condition on those who he prays for in John 17:20. He says there that he is not only praying for the apostles, but also for them which shall believe on me through their word. You have to believe on the Jesus that the Apostles believed on and spoke about. You have the Apostle's words in the New Testament, thank God! If you believe on the Jesus of the Scriptures, you got the right Jesus!

The Bible warns you about people preaching and teaching another Jesus, another gospel, and another spirit (1 Corinthians 11:4). It's the wrong Jesus. I hope you believe in the Jesus of the scriptures and not the Jesus of your own imagination of your deceitful heart. The Roman Catholic, Muslim, Jehovah Witness, and Mormon Jesus is not the same Jesus of the Apostle's word (i.e. the New Testament). You need to get that. O and by the way, Jesus never prayed for the world (John 17:9), only for those whom God had given him out of the world. So much for praying for the world and for world peace, huh?

Offended yet? Are you getting upset? Why are you? Do you think this is hate speech? I'm just quoting scripture. You see your problem is you don't believe God's word. Your problem is you reject the light of the word of God and you are headed for, if you are not already in, darkness. The Jesus of the Bible is Loving and Holy, and has NEVER tolerated sin! He is who he says he is and not what you think he is!

The real Jesus said he has not come to send peace to the earth. Now we know at the first coming of Christ he was to die for the sins of the world, thank God, and rise from the dead and ascend up into glory. Jesus knowing the Jews would reject him the first time and would be willing the second time to receive him (Psalm 110) said you are not getting peace NOW, it is postponed. Instead, from henceforth there will be divisions because of me. Listen friend or foe, the real Jesus will be a source of division among those that don't want the real Jesus. Families will be divided because of him. That is what the Lord Jesus Christ said. All Christians that believe on the right Jesus, may not always agree on everything, and not always do things the same, but they can still have fellowship one with the other and worship the LORD in unison.

But the world says throw out the real Jesus and adopt their "Jesus." The world says their "Jesus" is more loving since he tolerates sin, wants to unite the world at the expense of truth, and is okay with homo's, and covetousness, and fornication, and okay with a Palestinian State in the promised land, and killing babies, and says all roads and religions and gods lead to me and are the same, and their Jesus (God-forbid) would never think of discriminating against anyone or severely punishing anyone by sending them to hell because they choose to, after all we are all "God's children". Now there is only one problem with their "Jesus", it is not the Lord's Christ, but the devil's. You see when the devil's Christ (the antichrist) shows up he THINKS to change times and laws (Daniel 7:25) and they are all against the most High and his saints. They are contrary to scripture.

Now Notice in Luke 12:49, Jesus is come to send fire on the earth. So much for world peace, huh? He also said it will already be kindled when he is about to do this. Listen, The Lord said he came to send fire on the earth. If you don't believe Luke 12:49, what I am about to say is vain, but for those of you that do believe it, see the Bible study on "Behold the Day of the LORD Cometh!" for more verses on this. Before there will ever be peace on earth, the Lord will have to destroy the wicked off from it and change human nature. Even when Christ comes back, and has reigned for 1,000 years, at the end of it, many will still side with the devil and make one final rebellion. You say, I don't believe that. Of course you don't, you don't believe anything that God said, you live in a land of make believe, in the land of fairy tales where you attempt to soothe your conscience, but it's not working is it? The problem is man, not his environment. He is wicked and evil, even though God did not originally create him as such, he has sought out many inventions of evil things (Ecclesiastes 7:29).

The reason why there is no peace on earth is because of people, and no amount of education, taxing, getting rid of God out of everything and our everyday life, handing out freebies, changing laws and policies, uniting with other nations, making advances in science, going green (come on, really?), and pretending everybody is equal, and getting rid of our differences, and tolerating any and every sin imaginable will fix this mess. You say how do I know that, who am I? I am nobody, but God sure is somebody and he said it in his word plain as day AND HE HAS NEVER FAILED TO PREDICT THE FUTURE BEFORE, SO I KNOW HE WILL NOT FAIL TO PREDICT WHAT IS TO COME. The problem is human nature. All of the politicians and religious leaders are a bunch of wishful thinking, reality denying, Bible rejecters that don't know anything: for they all start with false presumptions. They all start with the false premise that what God said in his word can't be true, it might have some truth in it (i.e. where I agree with it) but not all of it is true. The reason why they do this is because as brother Chris said, they have a light view of sin and they don't like or agree with how God punishes sin. That's what it is.

They say we are making progress and yet every crime you can think of is on the rise, iniquity abounds, the jail houses are overflowing, kids are wicked as hell and rebels, the parents don't care for their kids, there is no fear of God, no love for the Lord, and no love for righteousness and doing what's right in the sight of the Lord: and they are trying to tell us we are progressing to a new world order of peace? And then they have the nerve to say God bless such and such? I'm sorry; I'm not buying it. You can keep smoking that stuff in your pipe of dreams and fairy tales but you know as well as I do, nothing has changed. It's getting worse not better. Darwin was wrong, the Bible was right!

In order for world peace to come, God must destroy ALL the wicked from off the face of the earth and he must change the nature of those that have trusted him, for even we that are saved are still trapped in corruption (our bodies) and still sin. He must destroy the sinners and make the sinners that trusted Jesus Christ just like Jesus Christ. You see the world is trying to make everybody equal and the same to bring in world peace. The idea is right, if we were all the same, and believe the same thing, it could happen (we know it won't and can't but it's easy to believe something like that). There is great power in unity! But the problem is they are doing it without God Almighty because they want to unite in their own way and still allow things that God calls sin.

When world peace does come to pass, and it will, by that time all the wicked will be dead and gone and be put into the lake of fire and be tormented forever. I didn't say that God did (Revelation 14:10-11, 20:11-15, 21:8). Don't get mad at me. I wish and so does God (1 Timothy 2:4) that all would escape the second death, that's why I tell all of you to repent and believe the gospel and get saved! I don't want you to go to hell if you don't have to! I'm just like you, I'm a sinner as well, but here is the difference, I am a saved sinner! Are you? JESUS WILL SAVE YOU! HE HAS NEVER CAST OUT ANYBODY THAT CAME TO HIM FOR SALVATION! But people refuse to repent and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ that they might receive the forgiveness of sins and eternal life in a perfect sinless body. God is giving them what they want. He respects their decision even though it is a stupid one. The reason why they won't come is because they love evil (John 3:19-21), so they will just get the just reward for who they are and what they do. Sin is not worth it, I'm telling you it's not!

That's how world peace will happen because that's what the Book of books says. So much for working for, praying for, and hoping for world peace? As many have said, there will be no peace until the Prince of Peace shows up! And I pray, that he would show up! Even so, come Lord Jesus!
